

NORD Center of Excellence for Rare Disorders at Boston Children's Hospital

RARE DISEASE GRAND ROUNDS

CME Course 220901-RSS

Thursday, April 20, 2023 | 12:00pm-1:00pm EST | Virtual Event

SPEAKER

Domenica Taruscio, MD, is the former Director of the National Center for Rare Diseases at the Istituto Superiore di Sanità in Rome, Italy. Dr. Taruscio is an active contributor to the development of the European and Italian scientific and institutional framework on rare diseases and orphan medicinal products. She has been the Italian Representative for the Committee for Orphan Medicinal Products (COMP, EMA) from 2000 until 2009; Italian Representative for the Board of Member States for the European Reference Networks at the EU Commission and scientific coordinator of several national and European projects.

"RARE DISEASES: EUROPEAN AND ITALIAN POLICIES AND ACTIONS "

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

1. European and Italian public health policies on rare diseases
2. European Reference Networks
3. Newborn Screening

Boston
Children's Hospital

NORD Center of Excellence
for Rare Disorders

Click here to RSVP. Registration is free.

Registration required for CME credit. Live activity fulfills 1.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits for Physicians, and 1.0 contact hours for Nurses.

Please join us via Zoom

Meeting ID: 927 0747 2510 Password: 599226